Alberto Ongarato

Riccardo Ongarato

---

After years of experience in the family business, which specializes in design and lighting, Riccardo and Alberto Ongarato found the brand Alabastro Italiano. Each project is conceived and designed to give a strong sign of recognizability and uniqueness. The use of precious materials such as alabaster, brass, leather and blown glass, worked by the skillfull hands of our craftsmen, are combined to create “timeless” objects.

What is Alabaster

---

Alabaster needs human hands to come to life. The charm of these stone objects comes from their uniqueness, from the fact that they come from the hand of those who has left a mark and a memory with their work.

Alabaster is a compact and rare stone, that lays down very precise laws, requires a familiarity that only Italian craftsmen possess.
